THE NOVEMBER OFFERINGS for the Masses for the dead can be handed in at any of the masses. The Catholic Church has a long tradition of praying for the dead. The personal experience of the saints show us the Masses offered and our prayer sacrifices and penances are most effective in increasing the peace and joy of those in heaven and helping those on the journey to the Father's House. Masses will be said for the deceased throughout the year. May all our deceased relatives and friends rest in peace.

St. Colman's National School, Cloyne. Partnership Schools Ireland – Working together for children in Primary Schools. Partnership Schools Ireland (PSI) is a joint initiative by the National Parents Council Primary (NPC) and the Irish Primary Principals Network (IPP). The main objective of a "Partnership School" is to achieve better outcomes for children. This is achieved by the whole school community planning and working in partnership on agreed ideas and activities. St. Colman's National School have set up an Action Team for Partnership which consists of the Principal, pupils, staff members and members of our community. We are hosting an information morning on Friday, November 15th at 10a.m. in St. Colman's N.S. School Hall. Refreshments will be served. This is an opportunity for everyone who wishes to become involved to meet and share ideas. We look forward to welcoming you.
